LOCAL DOVE HUNTERS TAKE FIELD

Bourbon county sportsmen in large numbers took the field yesterday in pursuit of the cooing but elusive dove. The season opened auspiciously. Hunters reported the birds as being more plentiful than in former years, due to the protection afforded by the stringent game laws in recent years. Several hunters came in last night with the limit, fifteen doves, while others came in empty handed, reporting poor luck. The Bourbon County Game and Fish Club, is keeping a watchful eye for possible offenders against the game laws, who will be vigorously prosecuted.
